NUMBER 110.

THOMAS F. BAYARD,

Ambassador Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary.

TO GO TO GREAT BRITAIN.

Robert T. Lincoln's Successor Named by President Cleveland—Quite a Number of Other Nominations Made, Among Them Being Three Editors and Three Former Officeholders.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—The president sent an important batch of nominations to the senate yesterday of which the chief was to fill the post of ambassador extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Great Britain. The appointee to this place is Thomas F. Bayard of Delaware, Mr. Cleveland's secretary of state eight years ago. Mr. Bayard will thus have the honor of being the first American ambassador to the court of St. James. He succeeds Robert T. Lincoln, the present minister, whose resignation was accepted by Secretary Gresham in the following letter:

WASHINGTON, March 30, 1893.
Hon. Robert Lincoln, United States Minister to Great Britain:

Sir—I duly laid before the president your letter of the 26th ult., tendering your resignation of the office of envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary, and am now directed by him to inform you that it has been accepted.

In doing so, the president directs me to make suitable expression of his high appreciation of the ability, efficiency and zeal with which you have fulfilled the duties of your mission, and his sincere regret that your retirement deprives the service of one of its most honored officers.

The president trusts that you will find it convenient to continue in the performance of your functions until relieved by your successor's entrance upon his duties. The Hon. Thomas F. Bayard of Delaware has been nominated and confirmed today as an ambassador extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to her Britannic majesty's government, this designation having been conferred in pursuance of a provision contained in the act of congress of March 1, 1893, and in view of the action of her majesty in appointing Sir Julian Pauncefote to be her first ambassador to the United States. You will be duly advised when the appointment is made.

I take this opportunity to assure you of my highest personal regard.

WALTER Q. GRESHAM,
Secretary of State.

Other nominations were as follows:

To be envoys extraordinary and ministers plenipotentiary of the United States:

James D. Porter of Tennessee to Chili.

James A. McKenzie of Kentucky to Peru.

Lewis Baker of Minnesota to Nicaragua, Costa Rica and Salvador.

Pierce M. B. Young of Georgia to Guatemala and Honduras.

Edwin Duff of Ohio (now secretary of legislation at Japan) to Japan.

To be consuls of the United States:

L. M. Shaffer of West Virginia to Stratford, Ont.

Harrison R. Williams of Missouri to Vera Cruz.

M. P. Pendleton of Maine to Pictou.

Theodore M. Stephen of Illinois to Ann Arbor, Saxony.

William T. Townes of Virginia to Rio Janeiro.

Claude Meeker of Ohio to Bradford, England.

Newton B. Eustis of Louisiana to be second secretary of the legation of the United States at Paris.

John M. Reynolds of Pennsylvania to be assistant secretary of the interior, vice Cyrus W. Bussey, resigned.

Lawrence Maxwell, Jr., of Ohio to be solicitor general, vice Charles H. Aldrich, resigned.

John I. Hall of Georgia to be assistant attorney general, vice George H. Shields, resigned.

There are at least three editors and also three officeholders under the former Cleveland administration in this list.

Ex-Secretary Bayard's career as a senator and secretary of state is too well known to need description. He has been so earnest and true a Democrat, and has stood so high in party councils that there was nothing but commendation for it. The senate did him the honor usually conferred on former members of its body nominated to office by confirming his nomination yesterday in executive session without the formality of referring it to a committee.

Governor Porter of Tennessee, who succeeds Patrick Egan at the Chilian capital, was assistant secretary of state under Cleveland during the first part of his administration. He was a long time governor of his state and stands well with the best people in Tennessee, and is regarded as a skillful diplomat and accomplished gentleman.

James A. McKenzie, who goes to Peru, has the reputation of being the best story teller in Kentucky. He was twice in conventions and made speeches seconding Cleveland's nomination and is popular.

Pierce M. B. Young, who goes to Guatemala and Honduras as minister, is an ex-officeholder of the Cleveland administration but the point is made that this time he is nominated to a different office than that he formerly held so that the rule, it is said, is not violated in his case. He was a brilliant Confederate cavalry commander during the war and also served in congress.

Edwin Dun, the new Japanese minister, is at present secretary of legation there, having been appointed by President Cleveland and been so efficient that he was retained by President Harrison. London, O., is his home and he is young in years.

In explanation of the appointment of ex-officeholders to other places Private Secretary Thurber made the point that the nominations were to fill other offices than the ones formerly held. Mr. Cleveland's idea carried with it partly the theory of rotation, and also very largely the theory that a former officeholder must not regard himself as having a mortgage on his old office.

JUDGE RICKS' DECISIONS.

They Have Probably Averted a Stupendous Railroad Strike.

CLEVELAND, March 31.—Judge Ricks of the United States court is home from Toledo, and is busily engaged in preparing his forthcoming decision in the contempt cases of the Lake Shore engineers and firemen, which he will deliver at Toledo next Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

Judge Ricks said last night that Judge Taft was preparing the decision in the case against Chief Arthur, and both would be delivered by him at the above time.

"Of course," said he, "I can say nothing about the decision until that time. The matter has caused a great deal of interest and in Toledo the courtroom was filled with railroad employees during every hour of the session."

"Was your now famous ruling the result of spontaneous conclusion, judge?"

"No. I have made a similar order once before, but the case was settled before it was delivered, and being a smaller affair did not attract much attention."

"It has apparently given you a widespread reputation."

"If it is sustained it will doubtless attract some attention. You would be surprised to know how many letters I have received from jurists and lawyers all over the country on the subject, and railroad men tell me it has undoubtedly been the cause of preventing a widespread strike throughout the length and breadth of the country. It has done that much good, anyhow. I would like to have you make one correction for me, for I know it must have been unintentional on the part of the newspapers. In conversation through the telephone some nights ago I was made to say that the railroad men at Toledo virtually had the heart taken out of them. What I said was merely that the railroad men were quiet and did not seem inclined to continue the strike. The matter was of no consequence except that it has a conclusion."

SENATE PROCEEDINGS.

But Very Little Done Outside of a Few Confirmations.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—The senate spent some time yesterday in considering a request of Mr. Chandler to substitute a more carefully framed resolution for the resolution he offered Wednesday, proposing an investigation of the charges made against Senator Power of Montana.

Mr. Vest misunderstood the desire of Mr. Chandler, and again objected to the senate going into these investigations, but the substitution was permitted, Senator Chandler not taking action on it at this time. Mr. Teller of Colorado was excused from further attendance at this session, and then Senator Mitchell of Oregon took the floor and made a two-hours' speech in opposition to the seating of governor-appointed senators.

An extra session was held and besides confirming Mr. Bayard, it was announced that the following confirmations had been made: William H. McCabe, postmaster, Coshocton, O.; William T. Garry, United States attorney, southern district of Georgia; Joseph O. James, United States attorney, northern district of Georgia; George A. Dennis, United States attorney, southern district of California; Frank Leverett, United States marshal, southern district of Georgia.

Adjourned until Monday.

Mudills Buried Sixty Years.

COLUMBUS, Ind., March 31.—Two of the original mudills of the old Madison and Indianapolis railway were taken from the bed of the Madison track at Champion, where they had lain for 60 years. They were of white oak, which was plentiful in that section in pioneer days, 18 feet long and 10x12 inches square, hewn on both sides. They were found in a perfect state of preservation, but had turned in color almost as blue as indigo. They were shipped to Indianapolis, and will be exhibited at the world's fair.

Severe Wind in Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, March 31.—A strong southwest wind has been blowing here for the past 24 hours, raising clouds of dust that have in many instances been almost unbearable. Charles E. Giles, a real estate agent, while walking along Superior street yesterday afternoon was struck on the head by a falling sign board and almost instantly killed. Much damage to telephone and telegraph wires and buildings in course of erection, and a number of minor accidents have been reported.

Fatal Fire in Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, March 31.—Fire broke out in the Forest City Varnish Company's varnish works yesterday. The inflammable stock burned with such rapidity that every escape for the employes was almost cut off. Charles D. Hamlin failed to get out and perished in the flames. Norman Bergener was blown through a window by the force of the explosion, and came out with only a few bruises and burns. The building is owned by L. C. Lyman, the brewer. The total loss is $15,000.

A Brakeman's Last Coupling.

BEDFORD, Ind., March 31.—John Campbell, the brakeman so badly crushed at the stonewards yesterday while making a coupling, died last night. He was a man of family, having a wife and two children. An inexperienced engineer is said to have been the cause of the accident.

WARSAW, Ind., March 31.—Mrs. Ed Patterson and her baby were instantly killed Wednesday evening. Mrs. Patterson had started downstairs with her baby in her arms, when her foot became tangled in her skirt and she fell headlong to the stone pavement, causing instant death. The mother fell on the child crushing it to death.

NOT FIGHTING YET.

No More Bloodshed in the Indian Territory.

BUT A BATTLE IS EXPECTED.

Both Factions Preparing for the Meeting Which Will Wipe Out One or the Other.

United States Troops Asked For—Telegraph Wires Cut and Particulars Hard to Obtain.

PARIS, Tex., March 31.—In spite of rumors there was no fighting at or near Antlers Wednesday night or yesterday. A battle is expected, however, and it would be a serious affair. Both sides have laid in fresh stocks of arms and ammunition and are determined upon the extermination of their adversaries. A number of surgeons have started from this city to take care of the wounded.

Active preparations have been going on by both parties for a battle. Locke has withdrawn from town, gone to his ranch on the east side of the Kiamata river, about three miles northeast of town. Governor Jones will arrive in Paris, Tex., at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, and it is thought by some that the militia will wait at Goodland until his arrival there. Others believe Duke will endeavor to march on Locke at once and make the attack for fear Governor Jones may pursue a less violent course and endeavor to settle it without bloodshed. If the battle takes place, it will be a fight in which one or the other of the factions will be literally exterminated. Hopes of a reconciliation are at an end.

The following telegram was sent yesterday:

ANTLERS, I. T., March 30.
To Hon. Huie Smith, Secretary of the Interior, Washington:
Choctaw forces within a few miles of each other. Bloodshed inevitable unless immediate relief is had. Governor Jones can be reached at Paris, Tex., tomorrow morning.

JOHN C. GUNNISON,
United States Commissioner.

Telegraphic communication is interrupted, probably by design, and it is impossible to get authentic information of the present state of affairs.

ONCE MORE FREE.

Abe Buzzard Pardoned Out of the Pennsylvania Penitentiary.

LANCASTER, Pa., March 31.—The state board of pardons has granted a pardon to Abe Buzzard of Lancaster county, who had five and a half years yet to serve out of a 10-year sentence. He, for many years, with his four brothers, made midnight excursions to neighboring towns. After many offenses Abe, the leader, was captured and sentenced to the county jail. He was tried in 1881 for burglary and convicted on the sole testimony of one Mary Goodendorf. He remained in jail until May 24, 1883, when he escaped and was recaptured in September, 1883. After being in custody only two weeks his escape was effected by his brother Ike, also a prisoner.

Ike had some birds in his cell and asked a keeper to take one to Abe's cell. As the keeper left the cell Ike slipped out and released Abe and a dozen other convicts. The county authorities offered $1,000 reward for Abe, but he was never caught until one day he walked into the jail and gave himself up. He always contended that he was innocent of the Ephrata burglary, for which he was convicted, and a day or two before his death the Goodendorf woman made a declaration under oath to the same effect. Prominent people interested themselves in his behalf and secured the pardon.

RAISING PHEASANTS.

Farm For That Purpose to Be Established

In Pennsylvania.

WHEELING, March 31.—An association of sportsmen of Washington, Pa., and Wheeling has made arrangements with the owners of about 2,500 acres of land bordering on West Virginia and Pennsylvania, whereby all hunting is to be prohibited within that territory for a number of years. It is their purpose to make an experiment in the propagation of pheasants.

At present it is the intention to experiment on the breeding of a cross between Mongolian (or ring) and English pheasants. All surplus eggs will be given out to farmers and others living in the country who will undertake to have them hatched and attend to the young birds until they are able to care for themselves. Large numbers have been received from New Jersey.

STABLE BURNED.

Thirty Horses Perish and a Fireman Seriously Injured.

NEW YORK, March 31.—Fire started at 4:30 yesterday afternoon in a loft of the 6-story building, used as a stable, at 519 to 523 West Thirty-eighth street. Four alarms were sent out, and in half an hour the flames were under control.

Forty-five horses, owned by C. Quirk, the proprietor of the stables, were in the building, and only 15 of them were rescued. William Overland, a fireman, fell from the first floor to the cellar and received serious internal injuries. The building is owned by L. C. Lyman, the brewer. The total loss is $15,000.

A Brakeman's Last Coupling.

BEDFORD, Ind., March 31.—John Campbell, the brakeman so badly crushed at the stonewards yesterday while making a coupling, died last night. He was a man of family, having a wife and two children. An inexperienced engineer is said to have been the cause of the accident.

WARSZAWA, Ind., March 31.—Mrs. Ed Patterson and her baby were instantly killed Wednesday evening. Mrs. Patterson had started downstairs with her baby in her arms, when her foot became tangled in her skirt and she fell headlong to the stone pavement, causing instant death. The mother fell on the child crushing it to death.

Documents in the Behring Sea Difficulty.

CLAIMS OF BOTH COUNTRIES.

The United States Claims the Exclusive Ownership of the Seal Fisheries in Behring Sea—England Enters a Denial to All the Points Made by Our Government.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—The documents in the Behring sea difficulty between England and the United States were yesterday made public by a parliamentary blue book and in America by transmission to the senate. The United States side of the case is in brief as follows:

Before the cession of Alaska, Russia claimed and exercised, without protest from England, an exclusive ownership of the seal fisheries in Behring sea using force when necessary to protect her rights. When the United States bought Alaska, all Russia's prerogatives in Behring sea were comprehended in the purchase, and now the United States wishes to exercise the same rights England formerly accorded Russia.

Nor does the treaty of 1825, between England and Russia, relate in any way to the Behring sea. But were all this not true, it would yet be the duty of England to co-operate with the United States in protecting the rookeries from depredation by vessels of either nation.

England's claims virtually amount to a denial in toto of all the points made by the United States.

IRON HALL BRIEFS.

An Answer by the Appellants—Technical Points by Appellees.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 31.—Two briefs were filed in the supreme court yesterday in the Iron Hall case. That of the appellees held that, independent of the statute, the appellees' complaint did not state fact sufficient to entitle appellees to any relief because it failed to show any attempt to obtain redress within the order. It is denied that Somerby had supreme control. The whole end aimed at in this case is the appointment of the receiver. When that is accomplished all has been done.

If this is the whole end of the proceeding this court could in no case look at the complaint to see whether it conferred upon the court jurisdiction to appoint a receiver, except as an incident to some other relief, and this limitation is just as effective as a preventive. There are direct charges of fraud and maladministration against Somerby, but the constitution provides a clear and adequate means of removing him.

There are charges of extravagance and mismanagement, but that is an affair to be remedied by the election of a new set of officers, charged with the duty of administration. So far as the complaint discloses every other member of the entire order may be contented with and approve the conduct of those in charge. The members are entitled to receive the full $1,000 at the end of seven years. The appellees hold the complaint does not show insolvency. It must go further and show that members are refusing or threatening to refuse to pay their assessments. But this is not the contract, the brief says.

The law of the order says that 20 percent of every assessment shall be set apart and retained as a reserve fund. Many certificate holders perfectly understand that their only chance of a profitable investment was that others might prove less able than themselves to stand frequent assessments. Still this did not warrant the issuing of an injunction and winding up this branch of the defendants' business as a whole. There certainly can be no presumption, the brief concludes, that the order was not fulfilling the purpose for which it was organized.

In the brief of the appellee only technical points of law are involved, and several cases are cited to sustain them.

FOURTH ASSISTANT POSTMASTER GENERAL MANWELL evidently believes in "turning the rascals out." Republicans are walking the plank every day now.

THE report of Special Agent Ayer of the Treasury Department, who investigated the tin industry during the last administration, is not at all favorable to the Republican high tariff on this article. In conclusion, the report states that the Tmescal mine in Southern California, and the Harney Peak mine, in South Dakota, have suspended operations, and suggests that inasmuch as it now seems probable that the tin mines of this country will not be developed in the near future to an extent that will afford an adequate product of the metal, it is worthy of consideration whether in the interest of tin-plate manufacturers that the law which imposes a duty of four cents per pound on and after July 1, 1893, on bar, block and pig-tin, might not be advantageously repealed.

CONDUCTOR SPENCER of the C. and O. passed west yesterday afternoon on first section of No. 3 and took charge of No. 4 at Covington, arriving here again at 8 o'clock—pretty fast traveling.

The marriage of Dr. C. F. Hera, of Cincinnati, and Miss Lutie Calvert, of this city, will be solemnized this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fannie Glascock, at the corner of Limestone and Fifth streets.

CONGRESSMAN JASON BROWN, who spoke here during the campaign last fall, was robbed of $450 in cash and a $250 watch in Washington one night this week. The thieves entered his room at the Riggs House.

DR. C. C. OWENS authorizes THE BULLETIN to say that he is not a candidate for re-election as Jail Physician, and will not be. His business is such that he hasn't time to attend to the duties of the position.

THE new Democratic postmaster at Greenup is just a little past twenty-one years old, and has his first vote yet to cast. The Gazette, a Republican paper, says the selection is a good one and will give satisfaction to the Greenpines.

SOME goods can not be sold on a guarantee, but Ballenger, the jeweler, never has any of that kind. His stock embraces the very best manufactured, and you will make a mistake if you fail to go to him when wanting anything in the jewelry line.

RETTA FOSTER, a woman of shady reputation, proceeded to Bob Mozeal's barber shop in Vanceburg one morning this week, and expressed her opinion of the tonsorial artist. He took exceptions, and the woman was knocked down several times before quieted. She was then arrested and fined five dollars and costs.

GENERAL MANAGER STEVENS, Superintendent Gill, Assistant Superintendent Boughton, Assistant Superintendent Lewis, of the Western Division of the C. and O., and Traffic Manager Walker, Train Master Haines and General Freight Agent E. D. Hotchkiss all passed West on a special yesterday afternoon.

NEAR HARRODSBURG yesterday the seven-year-old son of Robert Prewit was accidentally shot by Flora May, aged eleven years. She playfully pointed a self-acting pistol at the boy and said she was going to shoot. The pistol was fired, the ball striking the little fellow in the head. He will die. A loaded pistol is nice plaything for children.

CHRISTOPHER GRIMES, aged sixty-five, was before Judge Phister and a jury yesterday on a writ of lunacy, and was adjudged of unsound mind. He was ordered taken to the asylum, and will be conveyed to Anchorage. He has periodical attacks, and was in the asylum at Athens, O., fifteen years ago, and the Lexington asylum in 1880.

LAST night about 7:30 o'clock as Lee Porter was going down Short street, a man, (evidently a tramp), grabbed his hat, but before he succeeded in getting away Lee did some grabbing too, and the result was that Lee's hat was torn in two. When the fellow saw that the hat was torn to pieces, he took to his heels and made his escape through the alley running west from Short to Lower street. Lee was badly frightened, as he could not understand the maneuvers of the rascal who so ruthlessly assaulted him.

Isham Captured. Chief of Police Fitzgerald arrested Harvey Isham at the Grand View Hotel, about 6 o'clock this morning, and lodged him in jail. Isham is wanted at Vanceburg, for assaulting and beating his wife.

She was reported in a critical condition yesterday, and may die from her injuries. Isham made his escape after striking her, and reached this city this morning about four o'clock on a raft. Mr. Fitzgerald was on the lookout for him and soon had him behind the bars. He will be sent to Vanceburg.

Will Not be Taxed. In the State Senate yesterday, Senator Goebel reported from the Committee on Revenue and Taxation the House bill taxing the franchises of building and loan associations, with the expression of opinion that that part of the bill ought not to pass, and upon his motion, that part of the bill was struck out, and the bill, as amended, passed.

A FINE SHOWING.

That's What the Old Commonwealth Will Make at the World's Fair.

Commissioner James Says Kentuckians Will be Proud of the State's Exhibit.

World's Fair Commissioner James is confident that Kentucky will make a fine showing at the big exposition. He has just returned from Chicago and, after inspecting the work now in progress, expresses himself delighted with the outlook for an early completion of our State building and a creditable showing for old Kentucky. He was enthusiastic on the subject of the exhibit, says the Louisville Times.

"Why, we will have our building entirely finished by April 15," he said. "The plasterers are about through, and the doors, sashes and other interior wood-work are now being placed in position. The finishing touches will be laid on and then Kentuckians can go out to Jackson Park and look on the structure with a feeling of pride. Our building will compare favorably with most of the State structures."

"How do you like the location," asked the Times reporter.

"We couldn't ask for anything better," replied the Doctor. "We are on a cornes lot. Right across the street is West Virginia, and everybody seems to like our building the best. I believe all Kentuckians will be pleased when they see the structure."

Colonel Crump is on the grounds attending to the mineral and wood exhibits which are beginning to arrive in large quantities. Our space in the Mines and Mining building is being utilized to the best advantage, and the plans are being carefully carried out. The casing has been finished and the work of arranging the different consignments is being carried on as rapidly as possible. In this building we are next to Ohio. New York is near by. The mineral exhibit will be a magnificent one.

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all drugists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.
